- ACDS Membership is not required to participate in the Show Driving Classes.
- Exhibitors in the show driving classes can potentially use their placings as a performance to enter into the 2026 Sydney Royal. Please see Sydney Royal Show Guidelines for Performance available via the RAS NSW Website.
- In order to be eligible for an overall placing in the 3 Phase competition, competitors must participate in at least one Show Driving Class. 😊
- Competitors in the 3 Phase event must be full ACDS Members.
- The 3 Phase Event will be judged under the Rules for Three Phase Driving Events – ACDS Activities Manual 2014 or as currently in force.
- Shared 3 Phase marathon stewarding may apply.
- Ellmore Driving Club Standard Conditions of Entry apply to the 3 Phase Event.

Additional Important Information:

- Boorowa Show activities, including horse events, dog trials, car shows and special events will be underway on Friday 28th February & Saturday 1st March – this may mean that access to camping / powered sites may be limited until Show Events conclude (approx. 2pm on Saturday). There is plenty of space to setup unpowered camps at the southern end of the grounds (towards marathon obstacles).
- Free camping and some yards available Saturday night (first in best dressed – we cannot reserve them for you sorry).
- There will be Show Food available onsite Saturday, and there are plenty of Pub & Club options available in Boorowa for dinner Saturday night – we recommend our regular sponsors, Boorowa Ex-Services Club or The Court House Hotel.

3 Phase Event Classes:

- Class 1: Novice Pony 91cm not exceeding 149cm (time allowance 91cm – 124cm)
- Class 2: Novice Horse over 149cm
- Class 3: Intermediate / Open Pony 91cm not exceeding 149cm (time allowance 91cm – 124cm)
- Class 4: Intermediate / Open Horse over 149cm
